SAN FRANCISCO (KRON) - If you're near the Salesforce Tower tonight, look up! You'll see something you've probably never seen before.

A rare 1906 film called "A Trip Down Market Street" will be playing on a giant LED movie screen atop the tower in two screenings tonight -- from 6-7 p.m. and from 9-10 p.m. -- all thanks to the Prelinger Library and the Long Now Foundation.

According to a Facebook event, it's "one of the most historic films of 1906 San Francisco ever made."

The footage was filmed just days before the April 1906 earthquake and fire.
